“If You Have Faith

THE SIZE OF A MUSTARD SEED,

you will say to this mountain,

‘Move from here to there;’

...AND IT WILL MOVE; AND

NOTHING WILL BE

impossible to you.”

— MATTHEW 17:20

PROVERB FOR THE DAY

One of the key methods I have learned over the years for dealing with the everyday challenges that living throws my way is to meditate on the Word of God each day as I walk with God.

I have found that reading the Proverb for the day in the morning and reflecting on that Proverb and seeing how I can put it to action in my life as I go through the day has become a great faith builder and strength when trials and conflicts come my way.

Each day has its own Proverb and in one month I have applied all 31 Proverbs ready to do it again the next month. It really works, try it.

Since they hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the LORD... they will eat the fruit of their ways and
be filled with the fruit of their schemes.
Proverbs 1:29, 31

Jesus and My Family!

In thinking of my family, I have given much thought to what is the central focus of my family. So often I hear comments about family focus being on a special vacation, home, hobby, sports activity, recreation... and the list goes on.

These things, although a vital part of a well-adapted family, should not become the central focus around which the family co-exists. What a tragedy life is when the focus of life is maintained upon a created object or activity rather than upon the Creator of life. Those temporary things of life will soon pass away but real life is eternal.

Just as Jesus Christ is to be my individual Lord of my life, I should focus in on Jesus as the central member of my whole family. In doing this, when tragedy comes in whatever form, my focus will always be to Jesus and, thereby, my source of strength and comfort will never fail.

Fellowship is not only a word describing our relationship with other Christians, it also applies to our family relationship with Jesus Christ.
