Reflections No. 44

PROVERB FOR THE DAY

One of the key methods I have learned over the years for dealing with the everyday challenges that living throws my way is to meditate on the Word of God each day as I walk with God.

I have found that reading the Proverb for the day in the morning and reflecting on that Proverb and seeing how I can put it to action in my life as I go through the day has become a great faith builder and strength when trials and conflicts come my way.

Each day has its own Proverb and in one month I have applied all 31 Proverbs ready to do it again the next month. It really works, try it.

See The Winds!

Can you see what I see?
Can you see the mystery?

Can you see the winds blow?
As they approach
The leaves and branches below.

See not the leaves and branches,
See the winds themselves blow.

Can you see the mystery and know?

Look close,
Closer still,
Beyond what the eye can see,
To realms waiting to be known.

See the winds,
And then you will know.

What I see,
When the winds blow.
