Reflections No. 45

PROVERB FOR THE DAY

One of the key methods I have learned over the years for dealing with the everyday challenges that living throws my way is to meditate on the Word of God each day as I walk with God.

I have found that reading the Proverb for the day in the morning and reflecting on that Proverb and seeing how I can put it to action in my life as I go through the day has become a great faith builder and strength when trials and conflicts come my way.

Each day has its own Proverb and in one month I have applied all 31 Proverbs ready to do it again the next month. It really works, try it.

Steadfast!

In the day-to-day struggles we all are faced with there are signposts, standards, or points of recognition we all are looking for to maintain a sense of safety or hope in the direction we are traveling through life.

Many times we are searching for approval or acceptance from our family, friends or neighbors, hoping that during the times of trouble we may perhaps find a glimmer of positive recognitions that we are making the right choices in the midst of troubles.

The reality of the journey is that our focus should always be on our Heavenly Father and the inspired revelation He has handed down to us in the Holy Bible. Placing our focus and trust in any other source will only lead us further down the wrong road and in the wrong direction.

There are many great writings and books that have been written which give great insight and knowledge for all avenues of day-to-day life. However, there is truly only one that will lead us to our eternal destiny. The Bible holds the true knowledge for life and godliness.

[2 Peter 1:2-11 NASB]

Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; 3 seeing that His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and excellence. 4 For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, in order that by them you might become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust. 5 Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence, and in your moral excellence, knowledge; 6 and in your knowledge, self-control, and in your self-control, perseverance, and in your perseverance, godliness; 7 and in your godliness, brotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, love. 8 For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his purification from his former sins. 10 Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never stumble; 11 for in this way the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be abundantly supplied to you.
