PROVERB FOR THE DAY

One of the key methods I have learned over the years for dealing with the everyday challenges that living throws my way is to meditate on the Word of God each day as I walk with God.

I have found that reading the Proverb for the day in the morning and reflecting on that Proverb and seeing how I can put it to action in my life as I go through the day has become a great faith builder and strength when trials and conflicts come my way.

Each day has its own Proverb and in one month I have applied all 31 Proverbs ready to do it again the next month. It really works, try it.

How To Get Everything You Want in Life.

A man spoke with the Lord about Heaven and Hell. The Lord said to the man, "Come, I will show you Hell." They entered a room where a group of famished, desperate and starving people sat around a huge pot of stew. Each person held a spoon that reached the pot, but each spoon had a handle so much longer than their own arm that it could not be used to get the stew into their own mouths.

"Come - now, I will show you Heaven," the Lord said, after a while. They entered another room, identical to the first - the pot of stew, the group of people, and the same long-handled spoons. But here everyone was happy and well fed. "I don't understand," said the man. "Why are they happy here when they were miserable in the other room?" The Lord smiled. "Ah, it is simple: Here they have learned to feed each other."

Recognize that your well being and happiness comes from what you do for other people. Take the time and make the effort to help someone else today.

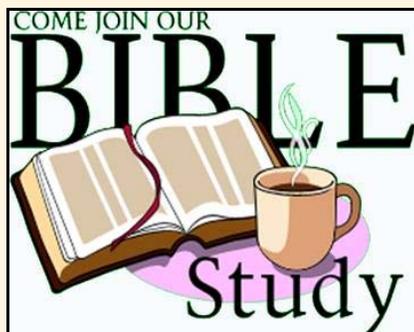

As it has otherwise been stated: "You can have everything you want in life as long as you help enough other people get what they want."

An Invitation!

Each Wednesday evening at 6:30 PM we host a Bible Study in our home.

We are currently in the Book of Hebrews.

Starting January 15, 2020 we will begin a series on the Letters of Paul starting with Galatians.

If you are near and able,

Joy and I invite you to join our study group.
